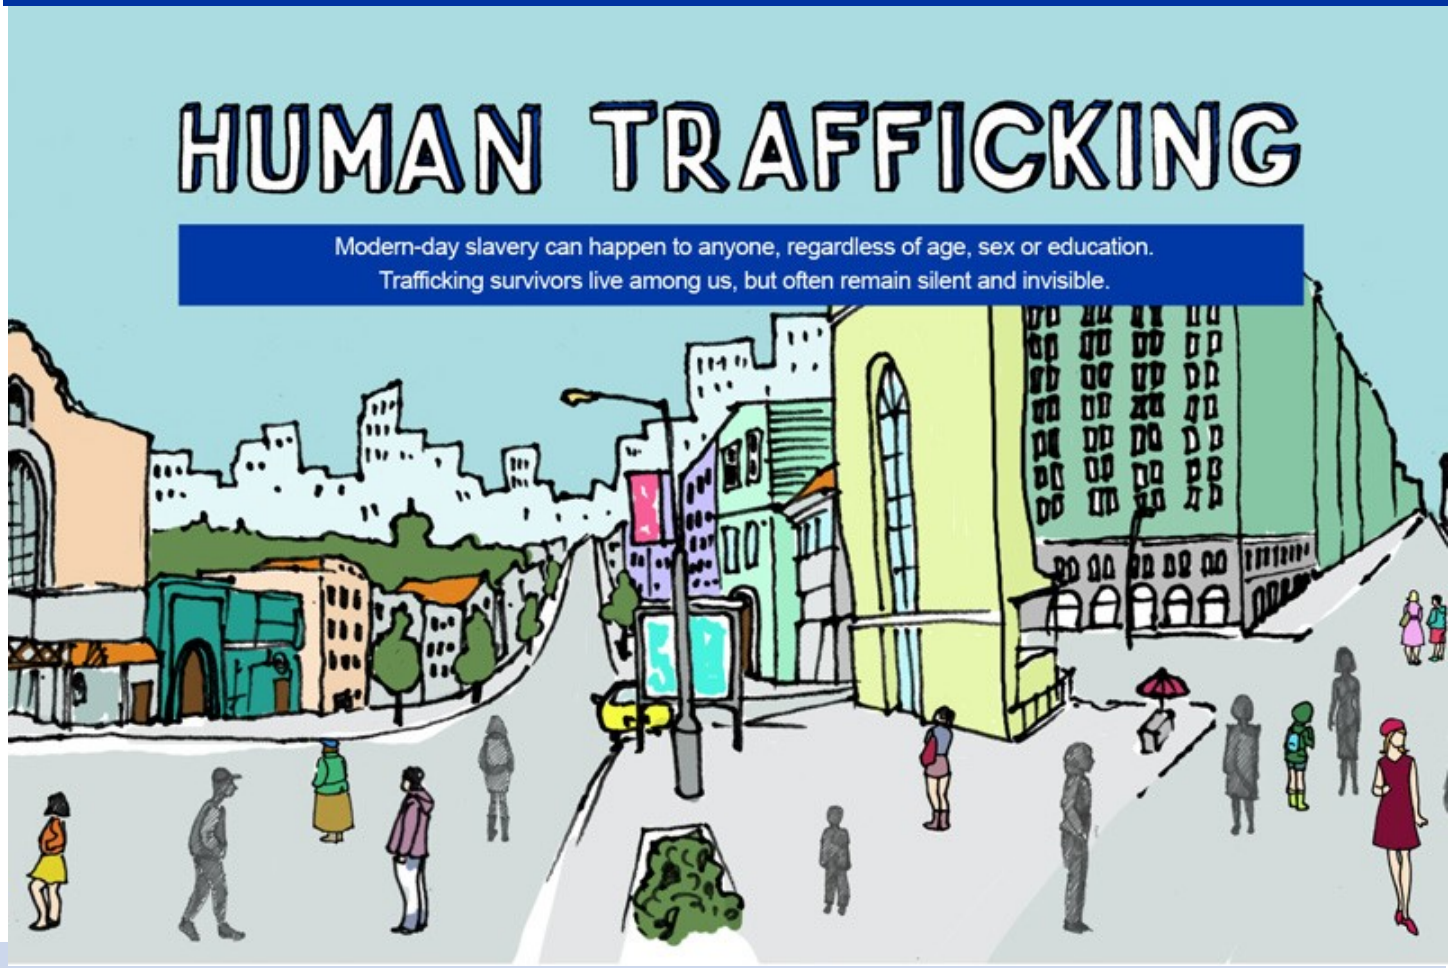
IOM ALBANIA

INTER-AGENCY REFERRAL SYSTEM FOR RETURN AND REINTEGRATION ASSISTANCE TO VICTIMS OF TRAFFICKING



IOM and the International Catholic Migration Committee (ICMC) in Albania implemented the Inter-Agency Referral System (IARS) project for return and reintegration assistance to victims of trafficking. The IARS project succeeded in establishing a coordinated operational response capable of assisting up to 30 third-country national trafficking victims per month. Based on this success, the IARS project in 2002 focused on refining shelter, return and reintegration assistance activities for third-country nationals only.

Inter-Agency Referral System (IARS) project focused in the return and reintegration assistance to victims of trafficking. The IARS project succeeded in establishing a coordinated operational response capable of assisting up to 30 third-country national trafficking victims per month.

KEY PROJECT DATA

Project Type: Counter Trafficking
Geographical Coverage: Albania
Executing Agency: IOM & ICMC
Beneficiaries: Third country national victims of trafficking